

APPG ON PENSION SCAMS DATA PROTECTION PRIVACY NOTICE

The APPG on Pension Scams processes your personal data for the purposes of maintaining and using a membership or mailing list, and for keeping minutes of meetings.

The data which we obtain from you and process is:

- Your name, title and email address
- Your role and the organisation (if any)
- Your address
- Your phone number

We use this information to send you information about the APPG and its work, including meeting notices, videos and minutes. We may also record personal information about you, including your opinions, in minutes of meetings (if applicable).

Our lawful basis for using this information is that you have given consent for the APPG to process your personal data for a specific purpose.

We will hold this information securely and we will keep this information for one year after the current

Parliament ends. We do not share your data with any third party.

Please also note that under the rules which Parliament has set for APPGs, the names of APPG members

(but not their contact details) are published on the group's website or webpages or else provided to enquirers on request.

If you have questions about the use of your personal data or you wish to amend or correct it, you should contact the Chair of the Secretariat to the APPG on Pension Scams, Andy Agathangelou, at andy.agathangelou@transparencytaskforce.org

You have the right to access your data, withdraw consent for the APPG to hold your data, to have your data corrected, to restrict the use of your data at any time. Please contact andy.agathangelou@transparencytaskforce.org in order to do so.

If you have a complaint about the use of your data then you have the right to complain to the Information Commissioners Office on 0303 123 1113.
